

Large Vote Seen in Primary Election Tuesday

Congressional Race Holds Top Interest

Incumbent Poe Has Write-in Competition

Election fever has hit a high peak today as thousands of Desert area residents will head for the polls tomorrow to vote in the 1960 primary election.

In Palm Springs Judicial District incumbent constable Howard Poe is finding strong competition in ex-constable Fred Duffey who is running in a highly advertised write-in campaign, and Homer Wise, also a write-in candidate, who has been a Palm Springs resident for 20 years.

BUT ONCE AGAIN the highest interest is turned to the congressional race where three Republicans are vying against Democrat for their party's nomination to that office, and to be the November candidate against Democratic incumbent D. S. Sound.

The three Republican candidates for Congress are: Charles Jameson, 37, Corona citrus grower and former mayor of that city; Red Kenyon, 48, Palm Springs contractor; and Leonard Campbell, 47, a Beaumont minister, and former mayor of that city.

VOTERS WILL ALSO choose Democratic and Republican nominees to the State Senate and State Assembly.

For State Senator, L. M. (Lee) Backstrand, 61, Republican Assemblyman is unopposed in his bid for nomination to the Senate post. He is also in the insurance and real estate business. Democrats running are Robert Garcia, 46, Palm Springs, former businessman and one-time gambling casino manager; and Clifford Dean, 52, associated with a Riverside auto firm, and former Banning store owner and city councilman.

FOR STATE Assembly, Gordon Cologne, 35, a Republican and former Indio attorney, one-time Indio mayor; David Strauser, 47, a Democrat, and Riverside attorney, and Riverside County's Assistant Public Defender, Grace Smith, 38, a Republican, teacher and wife of a Hemet rancher.

Four Riverside County Superior Court Judges are running unopposed. They are Hilton McCabe and Merrill Brown at Indio; John Neblett and Leo A. Deegan at Riverside.

ALTHOUGH LOCAL voters will have no vote a great deal of interest is being drawn from the desert to two races for the Board of Supervisors.

In the First Supervisorial District William E. Jones, a member of the board for 12 years, faces four challengers — Leon H. Cooley, Arlington; Faith Deuprey, Temescal Gardens; Francis A. Stearns, Corona; and James C. Stuffs, El Cerrito.

In the Third District race Curtis A. Chamberlain will seek his second four-year term in a race against Norman J. Davis, Beaumont, and William C. Slape, Riverside.

DESERT AREA voters will also vote on the $400,000,000 Veteran's Home Loan Bond Act, which has been given support by local Veteran's organizations and Palm Springs City Council.

Desert area residents will join voters throughout the State in being asked to send a 70-member delegation pledged to Vice President Richard M. Nixon to the Republican National Convention this summer, and to choose between proposed delegations which would be pledged to the Democratic National Convention to either Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, or pension-promoter George McLean.

TWO OTHER state propositions — $300,000,000 in school bonds, and a State Indebtedness bond — will also be on Tuesday's ballot.

Both Republicans and Democrats will elect a 4-member County Committee. Running for the Republican Committee are Al E. Hoover, William S. Wool, Arthur P. LaLonde, Henry V. Cleary and Margaret C. Cooley.

Candidates for the Democratic Central Committee are Leighton H. Nugent, Desert Hot Springs; Alice M. Temple, Mecca; J. Malcolm Jared, Indio; Amy B. Croft, Rancho Mirage; Roy J. Gilman, Indio, and Charles W. Estel, Coachella.

MEN BATTLE IN 15 FEET OF WATER, ONE IS KNIFED

SACRAMENTO — (UPI) — A fisherman faced a charge of assault with a deadly weapon today after he reportedly knifed a skin-diver during an underwater fight in the Consumnes River 15 miles east of here.

Sheriff's deputies said Darrell R. Lehman, 32, plunged a six-inch knife into the lung of Robert McMillen, 30, early Sunday as they fought in 15 feet of water. McMillen was in satisfactory condition today at a local hospital.

RECORD BALLOON TRANSMITS DATA

BRUNSWICK, Ga. (UPI) — The largest scientific balloon ever launched by the Free World floated across the southern United States today, its payload of emulsion plates picking up data on cosmic rays.

The 40-foot tall balloon, launched Sunday as part of the Operation Skyhook series at Glynn Naval Air Station, was reported 75 miles northwest of Pensacola, Fla., at 7 a.m. p.d.t. floating at an altitude of more than 20 miles.

L.T. William Stierman of the Office of Naval Research in Montgomery, Ala., said the balloon was heading west at a speed of more than 25 miles. He said it probably would land in Texas instead of California following a direction change.

Firemen Check Cause of Fire; Home Destroyed

Fire Department authorities are still investigating the cause of a fire which completely destroyed a home at 689 Beech Street on Section 14 early Sunday morning.

The home, which is owned by Pete Jackson, was occupied by Johnny Berry at the time of the blaze.

Firemen fought the blaze for better than an hour, attempting to keep it from spreading to nearby structures, but were unable to save the wood frame house.

Both Palm Springs fire companies answered the call at 3:10 a.m.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last in a series of articles on the deposing of Dr. Syngman Rhee as President of Korea. It's based on an interview with Winfield and Dr. Grace Song Line of 571 Indian Trail, who are personally acquainted with Rhee and other leaders in Korea.)

By DON KLOTZBUECHER Managing Editor

"Dr. Syngman Rhee was a wonderful man at one time, but he shouldn't have sought re-election. In fact, he should have retired four years earlier."

These were the comments of Winfield and Dr. Grace Song Line who visited Korea in 1956 and renewed acquaintances of Rhee, Vice President John Chang and other leaders of the country.

"A YOUNGER MAN with more economic background was a natural choice as a leader. If this would have been done four years ago, Korea would be much farther ahead now."

The Lines termed the revolt against Rhee as a continuation of the country's tradition of rising against oppressive leaders, and said that few of the common people of the country have benefited from the millions of dollars poured into the country by the United States.

"CORRUPTION AND waste were rampant," they said. In addition, the Korean Police system kept Rhee in power, with the Army staying neutral.

"It was this police system, patterned after the system established by the Japanese to keep control which kept Rhee in power, and which fired on the protesting students killing many of them," the Lines said.

"THE POLICE were underpaid, but had control over cities and villages, and no one dared question their authority. Rhee called on their support to keep himself in power when the students rioted — and they responded by killing the unarmed students."

The Lines said that during their

Boliva Quiet As Ex-Leader Wins Vote

Election Sharp Contrast to Bitter Campaign

LA PAZ, Bolivia — (UPI) — Ex-President Victor Paz Estenssoro won a new four-year term as president of Bolivia today on the basis of complete but unofficial returns from Sunday's balloting.

The government newspaper La Nacion reported Paz Estenssoro's election in a frontpage banner story: It said he polled 306,419 votes to 51,037 for Walter Guevara Arce, his nearest rival. Both men were Government party candidates.

THE INDEPENDENT newspaper El Diario agreed that Paz Estenssoro won but its final vote figures varied from that of La Nacion: Paz Estenssoro, 202,441 and Guevara, 66,731.

Returns from outlying points were expected to increase Paz's margin.

Sunday's voting was generally quiet, after a bitterly-contested campaign in which at least a dozen persons had been killed.

GUTIERREZ WAS stoned — but escaped injury — when he toured polling places here, but there were no other reports of violence.

The army mounted a heavy guard around the La Paz city hall, where votes from La Paz Province were being counted. Machine guns were placed on the roof of the cathedral to command the city's central square, and more than 100 soldiers with bayoneted carbines and tommy guns stood guard on the approaches to city hall.

Chinese Reds Shell Islands

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — Communist Chinese artillery shelled the Quemoy Islands Sunday for the second consecutive day, the Nationalist Defense Ministry said today.

A delayed communique released nearly 24 hours late said Red shore guns pounded the Nationalist-held offshore islands with more than 100 shells.

WEATHER

Variable cloudiness today through Tuesday. Scattered afternoon and nighttime thundershowers, becoming widely scattered Tuesday. Not much change in temperatures.

High temperature today 95 to 105.

Weekend highs and lows were: Saturday 101 and 75; Sunday 98 and 69.

Red China Backs Arms Proposal

TOKYO — (UPI) — Communist China officially announced its support of the new Soviet disarmament proposal today.

THIS STRONG opposition to communism — which was one of his greatest attributes — no doubt greatly influenced the United States government in toleration of his near-dictatorial policies, they added.

"Dr. Rhee was a remarkable man and did marvelous work against, and to halt the spread of communism," the Lines said. "His personal morals were high, and we are sure he not knowingly has done any dishonest acts."

BUT THERE ARE many able men in Korea who have been idle due to not being able to exercise their abilities, and not willing to come out under the "one man show" of Dr. Rhee, the continued.

"All of these leaders and students

Quake Rocks Coastal Area

EUREKA, Calif. — (UPI) — A sharp earthquake rocked the Northern California coastal area Sunday night, but there were no reports of serious damage.

The tremor was recorded on the seismograph at the University of California at Berkeley at 6:18 p.m. (p.d.t.) and registered for 40 minutes.

Seismologist Don Tocher said the quake centered 245 miles northwest of Berkeley, probably in the Pacific Ocean off Eureka. It had an intensity of 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 on the Richter scale.

SAILORS IN HIS hometown of Norfolk heard of Jimmy through a Navy chief who lives next door. They passed the hat.

Four days ago Jimmy and his grandmother, Mrs. W. J. Arken, stepped off a transcontinental jet airliner and were whisked away to Disneyland.

Three times he toured the storybook playground and met the wonders of a child's world.

"BOY, WHAT A place," he said. "I never thought I'd get to see it with my own eyes."

His other big wish was to see Roy Rogers.

He was wearing a western outfit and packing two six-shooters when the second wish came true Sunday.

Jimmy toured the wide open spaces with the king of the cowboys, telling imaginary Indians hidden among the rocks of Rogers' ranch.

HE MET TRIGGER in the barnyard, then waited in awe as his idol went through his paces at a nearby gun club.

"He was thrilled to pieces," his grandmother said. "When he first saw Mr. Rogers I thought he was going to jump through the roof of the car."

The dream ended early today when he stepped back aboard an airplane to go home to a tattered magazine full of things he now knows to be true.

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Little Jimmy Robertson, 6, his dreams fulfilled, today went home to Virginia to die.

Incurably ill with cancer of the brain, the red-haired boy had been given two years to live in 1958. His prize possession was a magazine with photographs of Disneyland and to go there was his "most wanted wish."

Truman ONCE VETOED PLAN FOR SPY PLANE

CHICAGO — (UPI) — Former President Harry S. Truman said today he once vetoed as chief executive a suggestion that the United States use spy planes to gather intelligence information.

"I turned it down because I didn't think such flights were proper," Truman told reporters accompanying him on a morning stroll through the Loop.

Later, a United Press International reporter went to Truman's room to get details of the proposed flights. Truman said a suggestion was made to use planes for spying purposes in general, and not specifically over Soviet territory, in 1949 or 1950.

AF, Defense Department Keep 'Watch'

Strike to Delay Construction, Research Shots

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Picket lines were posted at U. S. Atlas missile bases today, including the major Air Force facilities at Cape Canaveral and Vandenberg, when a strike was called over a wage dispute.

A spokesman for the International Association of Machinists said two-thirds of the 600 Convair employees at Vandenberg left their jobs and picket lines were posted at the installation's gates.

THE SPOKESMAN said the Convair installation at Warren Air Force Base, Wyo., Offutt Air Force Base, Neb., and Cape Canaveral, Fla., also were being picketed by striking employees.

In Washington, the Pentagon said only that "the Department of Defense and the Air Force are watching carefully the developments and keeping informed about the progress of negotiations."

A Convair official at Vandenberg said a count was being made to determine the exact number of employees out on strike. He said from 6 to 10 pickets were posted at two gates of the base.

WIDESPREAD LABOR unrest was general throughout the aerospace industry across the country.

An Air Force spokesman said the strike of technicians and maintenance men would not affect the retaliatory capability of the three Atlases standing at war-readiness at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., the nation's only operational intercontinental ballistic missile base.

However, the strike will halt construction of Atlas pads and facilities at Vandenberg; Cape Canaveral, Fla.; Offutt AFB, Neb., and Warren AFB, Wyo. And it might impede the schedule of test and research shots of Atlases, said an Air Force spokesman.

JOINING THE 3,000 members of the International Assn. of Machinists (IAM) were 25,000 workers at two Convair plants here and in Pomona, Calif. The plant workers, however, planned to remain off the job for only one day to be informed by union leaders of the work contract dispute.

The City of Palm Springs will host the Citrus Belt Division of the League of California Cities at a meeting here on June 24.

It was announced today by City Manager Dan Wagner.

The Citrus Belt Division includes Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

Jameson Pledges Close Attention To Voter Desires

Charles Jameson, candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from Riverside and Imperial Counties, stated in closing his campaign that he will always keep his door open to hear from and to serve the interests of the people of the 29th District.

"I am impressed by the tremendous size of our district, and by the growth and development which has occurred and can continue if we give it a chance," he said. "I will always work to further this growth in every constructive way. We can increase our industry, our agriculture, and our recreational opportunities in every part of the District."

JAMESON SAID that he found "most people are interested in fighting Communism and its threat, both at home and abroad. We need to be aware that this is the job cut out for us in the immediate future — the job of preserving honorable peace." Commenting on national issues, the former Corona Mayor said that he would "work towards solutions which will solve each problem, but which will not increase the burdens of taxation, debt and inflation which rob the people."

JAMESON IS IN favor of strong civil rights legislation, as guaranteed by the Constitution, and is in favor of Federal action to meet the needs of medical care and education, only if all other approaches have been unsuccessful, and then on the basis of need rather than that of general government control.

ents alike had personal bitter experience with communism — lost sons and fathers in the death march during the invasion — and they will be just as strong as Dr. Rhee against communism," Dr. Line said.

The South Korean army caused the downfall of Rhee. It refused to obey his order of martial law, which would have necessitated the killing of many more students, who initiated the uprising.

This army — 600,000 strong and the second largest in the Free World — will prove its part as a freedom loving ally with the Free World and the United States, Dr. Line said.

WITH FREE elections promised, South Korea has a chance to really go ahead economically now, they said.

A free, democratic country can expand the economy — eliminating the waste and corruption of a government which is a dictatorial type, the Lines continued.

Dr. Line, who personally underwent much hardship in her part to free Korea from the Japanese, told of two letters received since Rhee resigned as President.

ONE WAS FROM a mother of a student who was spared from death while protesting the autocratic government. In essence it said:

"My son was spared. The ones who were killed are better off than the thousands maimed."

"For the first time in 12 years we can talk openly without being accused of being Communists."

AND FROM A Korean student at MIT:

"I grieve very much because I lost my friends, but someone had to do it."

And Winfield and Grace Line, personal friends of Rhee and long-time fighters for Korean freedom, repeated their original statement:

"Personal friendship is not as important as the good of a country and its people."

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am a waitress who works in a combination bar and restaurant. Many fellows have said to me, "What is a nice girl like you doing in a place like this?"

Abby, this hurts me very much. I am a nice girl. I do waitress work because I need the money. The tips are good and I have to support my little girl and myself as I am a widow. I never thought it was a disgrace to do waitress work, but lately I find I am ashamed of how I make my living. Please print something in your column on the subject, because a lot of girls have this problem.

DEAR WAITRESS: There are no "disgraceful" jobs — just disgraceful people. Waitress work has as much dignity as the woman who undertakes to do it. Anyone who stands on tired and swollen feet 8 hours a day, serving the hungry and thirsty (and often abusive) public, deserves respect.

DEAR ABBY: How can I improve my husband's memory? He brings home his boss' shirts every week for me to wash and iron. He remembers to bring home the shirts, and he remembers to take them back. But he forgets to give me the money.

NORA
DEAR NORA: Two can play that game. The next time he brings home the shirts — keep "forgetting" to do them up until he remembers to come through with the money.

DEAR ABBY: What do you give a man who has everything? LU

DEAR LU: Encouragement!

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NEEDS TO KNOW": You have been misinformed. There is no law which compels unmarried mothers to give up their babies for adoption. See your Family Service Association.

Special to The Desert Sun
BOSTON — Decisions about national elections should come out of each voter's communion with God and the guidance obtained through prayer, The Christian Science board of directors said today.

More than 7,000 Christian Scientists at the Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., heard the directors' message which called for an end to apathy, irresponsibility, and blind partisanship.

"IN THE UNITED States," the directors said, "the current year will record important political decisions as well as international approaches." They added that "through prayer, we can rise above blind partisanship and the irresponsible tumult of aggressive mental suggestion."

Named president of The Mother Church for the coming year was Arthur W. Eckman of Cambridge, Mass. A lawyer, he is a native of Vicksburg, Miss. He was educated at the University of Texas, the University of Southern California, and Harvard Law School.

THE DIRECTORS held that peoples of all lands will be delivered from tyranny through the freedom — giving power of spiritual understanding.

"With complete confidence in God's guidance," they declared, "Christian Scientists foresee the doom of the evil forces which would undermine righteous government, weaken human freedom, and sink mankind deeper into materialism."

Charles L. Reilly of Los Angeles, was named to The Christian Science Board of Lectureship at the annual meeting.

ISOMATA TELLS DETAILED PLANS FOR FOLK MUSICS

IDYLLWILD — A growing interest in folk cultures has increased the popularity each year of the International Folk Dance Workshop and the Folk Music Workshop at ISOMATA, the Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts.

The Folk Music Workshop takes place during July 11 - 22 and includes singing and playing folk music of the world, a study of folklore, problems of translation, arranging, accompanying and leading folk singing.

THE USE OF THE GUITAR, banjo, and other folk instruments is also a part of this workshop. Students may register of the two weeks for college credit or for single weeks without credit.

There are two Folk Music Weekends, one on July 8-10 and the other July 22-24.

Hilltop Jammed Up With 'Fiesta' Fans

By GEORGE LAINE

The lovers of things Latin really had themselves a field day Saturday night in the simpatico environment of the Hilltop Room. It seems that everyone who owned a Mexican shirt broke it out for the occasion and — for the first time since the mariachis arrived — the customers actually looked as colorful as the entertainment.

THIS WAS QUITE a stroke of genius on the part of Pappy Landfield.

In the summertime in these parts, the customers head for the place with the action. In most cases, it is incumbent upon the club to rise to this challenge by creating the action. Thus far — this summer, at least — the Hilltop is the only location in the town that has really gone out of its way to scare up special events for the Village die-hards (of which I consider myself one).

Although the "Viva La Fiesta" night was a solid, 14-karat success (ask Ray Blumenthal if you doubt this observer), Pappy is already halfway through his summer programming.

LAST WEEK, THE Hilltop launched a weekly Tuesday night bash consisting of a down-home chicken dinner with all the fixings — biscuits or corn pone, take your choice.

The reaction to that bit of culinary activity — in addition to the fine dinner Pappy tossed together — was a solid gang of citizens who belied up to the bar and stuck around long enough to hear Raoul and Gustavo attempt the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." (The guys have promised to stick to "Guadalajara" and similar efforts in the future.)

Anyway, the chicken was great and so were the trimmings and so were the drinks. (My daughter, catching on fast, ordered a "very dry Shirley Temple" and that may or may not be a notable first.)

SATURDAY'S GIG, in addition to some very delectable Mexican dishes, also produced some first-rate entertainment with Raoul and Gustavo teaming with Renato — late of the Keith White and Renato Duo — for an enchanted sound that brought attendees up with cries of "mas y mas y mas y mas . . ."

The pinadas — constructed by the mariachis with some expert aid from their wives — were uniformly beautiful, particularly the one that graced the front door. Pappy refused to allow anyone a whack at them and they'll all be back — hanging in mid-air — come Saturday.

NEXT THING IS DUE on Thursday and, as usual, Pappy is being very secretive about it all.

Whatever it is — and I'll bet one or another of my spies lets me know by tomorrow — you can almost gamble on the one certainly.

If Pappy does it, it'll have good food, great entertainment and thoroughgoing class. That's the kind of man he is.

The Hardening of Realism

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The U-2 investigation goes on in secret, but its meaning is already manifest.

The Senate and people of the United States have accepted an axiom which, although long butted in the windy caverns of political oratory, is again self-evident. Governments are instituted among men for the purpose of self-betterment and self-defense. At no time was it ever the legitimate business of the Government of the United States to do anything else except to improve and to protect the USA. And this was exactly what the U-2 was doing over Soviet Russia on May Day.

A RETURN to realism is signalled in the U-2 probe, and possibly it will lead to a return to sanity. To date, Senator Fulbright and others in favor of the investigation have never once condemned aerial spying—only the bungling of it. And Senator Mansfield and those who doubted the wisdom of an election season Congressional probe have opposed it, it seems, for the purest of patriotic reasons—don't give any comfort to the enemy!

There are other viewpoints of significance on Capitol Hill. Democratic Candidate Symington tells this reporter that he will not stand still for seeing Allen Dulles, Central Intelligence Administrator, get pitched around and his status as a Spy Chief injured. If necessary, Symington will try to take the investigation of Dulles away from the committee on Foreign Relations and place it in Armed Services—where it belongs.

MAJORITY LEADER Johnson, although standing to benefit by the President's discomfiture, acts on the theory that it's wrong to make like look any worse than he already does. A Republican spokesman, Senator Hugh Scott, has fired a couple of warning shots across the path of appeasement—as if to say that anybody trying to blame the USA, and mollify Russia, must advance at his own political risk. A soft-on-Communism barrage for all appeasers!

In all these various postures toward the spy plane incident, it is now possible to discover, a month after the event, that a hardening of thought has set in. The current attitude toward performing espionage upon our sworn enemies now seems to be—hit 'em again, hard!

FOR SOME OF US who have been watching and hoping for a miraculous turn-about in the national thinking, this could be it. During most of this mid-century, political leaders have been applying Goebbels's Law of the Big Lie (the bigger it is, the more likely to be believed) to what may be called the Big Balderdash.

Basic to Big Balderdash thinking is the abandonment of self-interest in the national government. This is often accompan-

Advice for Graduates

NEW YORK — Robert Moses, who at age 71 recently accepted a five-year contract to build and then operate for two years the great New York World Fair, is a man who is never in want of a word. He has proved that fact abundantly through his fine public life, but much of his life has been shed in the New York area. The country at large has no proper appreciation of his skills.

For example, he was called on unexpectedly at the Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., not long ago. He was there simply to visit his grandson. But when summoned he rose and spoke brilliantly. Excerpts:

"I SHALL OFFER a few kernels of advice which may perhaps germinate. This Poor Richard says: You will live in an age such as the one which produced Goethe and Schiller. Stress if you will, an age of rebirth in which all the old established standards, truths, saws and sayings, long thought to be immutable, will be re-examined by a generation no longer willing to accept them without caviar or question.

Go ahead and test them. Truth survives the skepticism of the young. The eternal verities, perhaps slightly dented, will be found more or less intact when you are through. The Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount have withstood analysis and assault before and remain the ultimate goals even if we cannot always live up to them.

"DON'T WORRY too much about criticism, opposition or being in a minority. Every majority was once a minority. You are not an eccentric because you refuse to join or follow the crowd.

It is sometimes lonesome to be away from the shelter of the mob, but you can get used to it. . . . never temporize, duck, dodge, or run away from a fight.

"Christ praised the meek, but He insisted that He came to send not peace but a sword. Reflection will show that this is no contradiction. A man may be a fighter for a cause and at the same time personally modest, unassuming and without bumpiness or conceit.

"YOU NEED NOT make a choice between a scientific education and one in the humanities. There is still room for both, and our ability to beat the Russians will not depend upon the number of schoolboys who are sharks at mathematics. . . . genius is not counted in numbers, and great inventions and discoveries will continue to be stumbled upon by unknown people in obscure laboratories.

"Meanwhile, it is more important for the average boy to read, speak and write good, simple Anglo-Saxon than to be a scientific marvel, and a little poetry will stand him in good stead when his integral calculus is forgotten.

"YOU WILL LIVE in a highly competitive world. Do not, in heaven's name, start your lives with your eyes on guaranteed freedom from fear and want, and on the pleasant prospect of pensions, security and early retirement.

"Cultivate humor. Of course by humor I don't mean practical jokes, Keystone comedy, wisecracks and hollow laughter which have made television such a dubious blessing. The world is full of absurdities and only sustained humor can make them tolerable. You will be better

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

The codfish lays a million eggs. While the faithful hen lays one. But the codfish does not cackle. To inform us what she's done. So we disregard the codfish. While the faithful hen we prize. Which only goes to prove, It pays to advertise.

That, I am sorry to say, is not mine. It's too good. But, when cleaning out my desk a few days ago, I came across it, hidden in a far corner of the drawer where I had put it for safe-keeping and future reference.

ANYWAY, today I am praising the admen. Without them this would be a sorry world. If nobody emulated the hen and cackled, how would we know what they had?

You could build a better mousetrap but if you keep mum about it and erected no directional signs or put an ad in the paper, who'd beat a path to your door?

While waiting for the rush, the mice might develop an immunity to cheese.

COMING FROM ME, this is a tribute, indeed.

Years ago, on another newspaper, there was a white line on the floor between the ad department and the newsroom. Any adman who crossed that line did so at the risk of having some deprecatory remarks and possibly, a paste pot, hurled at him.

THAT'S BECAUSE ONCE we held a clinic on that paper. The subject of the seminar was:

"What is news?" Well, there was quite a lively discussion until one suave adman said: "News is something that keeps the advertising apart." And, do you know, of all the smart newsmen there, not a one could think of a nasty comeback for four hours.

THE ABOVE was triggered by a story in The Desert Sun detailing the result of a survey by a group of Chicago consultants who found that newspapers lead all other media in advertising preference.

And, I am happy to say, these experts found that billboards trailed the field as the least effective.

TELEVISION rated third in the survey. But it also rated first in disapproval for "bad taste" in many commercials.

So the printed word is still first. That is as it should be. It has played a leading role in my economy. Now, I am a firm believer that the news comes first. But I know that advertising has provided the scratch which for a half century have enabled me to buy groceries, railroad accommodations and pari-mutuel tickets.

HAVE YOU EVER searched frantically for a bit of paper to jot down some important notes? Well, I saw an advertisement the other day for a new ball point pen that carries its own paper supply.

STAN DELAPLANE: The Blooming Tourist

In this Tahiti garden of flaming hibiscus and brown-skin women, nothing blossoms like the blooming tourist.

We arrive in our blue serge graduation suits.

We leave barefoot, a tiare tahiti flower behind the ear.

THE TOURIST tidal wave is lapping at the shores of Tahiti. The French Colonial government is not quite sure whether to throw up a levee or run for the hills.

French Polynesia is an expensive to France—"Like a poor man with an expensive mistress," a French official said. "We would like to share the cost. But we do not want to share the woman."

TOURIST DOLLARS would cut France's cost in the islands. They would prefer it somehow without the tourists. What they would really like is to have you mail it to them.

IN SUCH AN atmosphere (until last year there was an arbitrary head tax on all Chinese residents) foreign capital is shy. In spite of the promising jet strip that will open next April.

(Now we fly once a week from Honolulu to Bora Bora and ferry over by flying boat.)

A sudden colonial tax was slipped on Hotel Les Tropiques the other day.

AT IAORANA Villa, Howard Wald was enjoined from having an orchestra play in the evening without proper permits and furthermore is forbidden to have one.

"But the biggest problem is your native help," said Ralph Varady who manages the new and luxurious bungalow Hotel Tahiti.

"VARADY HAS spent a number of years in the outer islands and is the author of an excellent book, 'Many Lagoons.' "You never know when anybody is going to show up for work," he said.

"YOUR POLYNESIAN waitress doesn't show up for dinner. When she comes back a few days later, she says: 'I was invited.' She was invited to some party. To her, that is a perfectly logical excuse.

"You can fire them, sure. But you won't get anybody any different.

"You have to learn to live with it."

SOME AMERICAN friends of ours rented a house outside Papeete. Sunday is the maid's day off.

"I hope to see you Monday," said the American lady.

"I hope so too," said the maid. "But maybe Saturday night too much drink. No go to bed. Maybe cannot rest Sunday. Must rest Monday."

"PEOPLE HERE don't work for a living," said Varady. "Food grows practically wild. And you'd be surprised how many things you can get along without."

Our hotel maids are constantly talking about the work. "Too MUCH work."

They pick up a mop. They move it a few steps around the floor. They sit down. Exhausted.

"TOMORROW I no work," said the maid happily.

"What do you do?" "Go river. Swim. Fish. Cook breadfruit. Eat."

Our maids are great. They sit around all day and teach us Tahitian (it is better than working for a living). We asked them what present we could send from the States.

They couldn't think of a single, solitary thing.

Good News Report

HOLLYWOOD — Producers Clarence Green and Russell Rouse are thinking strongly of Portland Mason (daughter of James and Pamela) for their TV series, Alice in Wonderland. But an even more difficult role to fill is a Joe Penner-type for Alice's pal. A ten-year-old Joe Penner — ouch!

Tennessee Williams is a puzzle! On TV's small World, he said Hollywood distorts his plays and in the next breath, he said Hollywood doesn't go far enough beyond the limited technique of the stage to expand them and to devise more changes in their plots!

"KOOKIE" BYRNES is taking dancing lessons at an Arthur Murray studio from Muelle Drehsne who used to play a role in the old Blondie movies. Her name in them was "Kookie" too!

Eartha Kitt will do a one-ner at the Hollywood Bowl next month and told us she'll do one-third of her numbers in Hebrew.

Just like getting back on the same horse again, producer Richard Bare chartered the same kind of plane that crashed and broke his legs a couple of months ago when he went on location in the Caribbean for his TV series, The Islanders.

WALTER O'MALLEY is having more troubles building the Los Angeles ball park than Kirk Douglas had filming Spartacus. Theodore Bikel tells us both Revue and Four Star are anxious to talk with him about his Intrigue Series in which Theo would have a different identity in every episode.

Sylvia Fine asked Chuck Walters to direct Danny Kaye's upcoming TV spec debut. Walters: "Why me? I've never directed TV!" Sylvia: "That's exactly

More Room Needed on Home Front

STAMFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Are you outgrowing your home? Before you move or build an addition, check your house for wasted space.

So advises Lester Smith, an architect, of Sherwood, Mills and Smith, who has solved countless space problems in schools, business offices, churches, hospitals and homes.

First, put a room to more use than one, Smith said. Perhaps that upstairs hall connecting the bedrooms could be widened and a window included to make it a playroom or writing space. Or the dining room could be equipped with convenient and attractive lighting, bookshelves, cabinets, and perhaps music equipment for use at other than mealtime. The enlargement of a window can turn a room into a solarium — greenhouse.

Check for dead space — room taken up by large chests and over-stuffed chairs. Analyze closets and storage space. The contents of most closets probably could be stored better in a closet. Older houses usually have too many partitions, Smith said. For example, a small hallway next to a kitchen could be eliminated to add more kitchen space.

Finish off attic or basement space. Modern insulation materials and attractive wall boards are inexpensive and far cheaper than adding a new wing.

Large, dark storage rooms or closets could become bathrooms or dressing rooms or could be added to adjacent rooms.

If you've considered all the recommendations, but find no actual increase in space is available, you can psychologically increase the size of your house, the architect said. Replace fixed partitions with room dividers, translucent partitions, or other arrangements which make space seem to extend into other spaces.

Rooms also can grow or shrink by means of moveable partitions — sliding, swinging, or folding. Some also combine display and storage features. Portions can be translucent or transparent to give a house new adaptability.

If traffic patterns take up needed space, change them, Smith said. Rearrange furniture add a room divider, or, if necessary, cut a new door.

GORGEOUS embroideries set off the magnificent ancient costume worn by one of Japan's most famous actors, Utaemon VI, in "Musume Dojoji (Maiden of the Dojoji Shrine)," one of the lavishly traditional plays to be given by the celebrated Grand Kabuki Theater of Japan during its engagement in the Greek Theater in Los Angeles from Monday night, June 27, through Saturday, July 9.

Grand Kabuki Coming to Greek Theatre

Three vivid plays, each representing a different phase of Japanese theatrical artistry, will be performed every night by the Grand Kabuki Theater of Japan during its 12 performances in the Greek Theater in Los Angeles from Monday night, June 27, through Saturday night, July 9.

The engagement is a historic occasion, since the National Theater of Japan never before has appeared in the Western World. It offers a culture four centuries or more old, combining the occidental concepts of dance, drama, comedy and opera in a uniquely alluring manner.

Scenic effects of amazing character and gorgeously embroidered costumes are part of the lavish display that sets off Nippon's leading actors in roles that have descended to them by heredity for generations.

The Greek Theater Association, in cooperation with Japan's Society for International Cultural Relations, brings the stirring troupe to California.

Male Chef Tells How To Barbecue

CHICAGO (UPI) — Meat intended for the backyard barbecue should be generously larded with fat and cooked by a male chef, suggests one amateur male chef.

Bob Bentley, Columbus, Ohio, displayed barbecue meats and sauces at the recent convention of the National Food Distributors Association and offered advice on how to win friends over the backyard grill.

"The best tenderloin in the world can come out tasting like sawdust if all the fat is trimmed off before it's put on the grill," he said.

"Let the fire burn down to white coals, scrape away the ashes, then put the meat on the grill. Melting fat will drip down into the hot coals and send smoke drifting up to barbecue the meat. If a barbecue sauce is used as a baster, wait until the last 10 minutes of cooking, when pores of the meat have been opened by the heat."

"The little woman should limit herself to setting the table. Barbecuing is man's work."

Bedside Manners

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Mt. Sinai Hospital's news letter carried this story of the woman painter from Illinois who recently checked in as a patient. Before settling down to the routine, she lined the corridor walls with samples of her art. She also asked for someone to pin up a skirt hem for her. The hem went up, but the pictures came down. Mrs. Edith List, a volunteer, took care of the former. Nurses with an explanation of hospital regulations tended to the latter.

items for the sun set.

A Bikini of black stretch fabric, with the bra and shorts covered with pink silk hyacinths everywhere, except where a girl sits down. This suit is from flower-made, a New York firm which pioneered artificial flower earrings and flower-trimmed bathing caps some years ago.

This year, flower-mode showed straw-base beach hats, coiled shaped, and covered from crown to brim edge with large pink petals, so that the result appeared to be one giant rose.

The same firm produced flower-trimmed "wind bonnets," which are crisp nylon veiling tied under the chin to protect the hair while riding in an open car, and sun glasses which looked like something right from the greenhouse.

In the case of the latter, the dark glass itself formed the heart of the flowers, with rims surrounded by fabric rose, daisy, sweet pea, violet or sunflower petals. Some of the petals were of gingham-check or polka dot fabrics.

Beach hats for 1960 run all the way from the conservative pork pie shape, through coolies decorated with flowers, paillettes, artificial fruits or vegetables, to straws with brims wide enough to pass for a parasol.

Undisputed master of the wild beach hat is William J. the young New York designer who the rest of the year turns out millinery same enough for church or a woman's club luncheon.

One group, called ice cream parlor straws, were shaped like the old-fashioned ice cream soda mugs topped with pastel-colored ostrich feathers and a couple of straws shooting upward like the ears on a television set.

But the milliner figured his "kookiest" of all was the wig hat, with a mane of "hair" strands of raw silk which he said could be combed like nature's own locks. "But don't take it to the laundromat," he warned, "Take it to your hairdresser."

The part which fitted over one's own hair, plus curlers if necessary, was cloche shaped and made of straw. Manes, dyed natural, white, turquoise and shocking pink, ranged from waist to ankle length to turn a bathing beauty into Godiva without a horse.

A HOUSEWARMING party in their beautiful new home on Via Las Palmas Drive was the happy occasion for the Harry Henkles pictured above as they are getting ready to receive their guests which included Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Beck, George Clausen, Duncan Crux, George Fizar, Thomas Gemmill, Perry Gill, Bow Herbert, Charles Horn, Herbert Lakey, Jack Lipton, Howard Mathews, Frank Meyer, James Pelham, Francis Pruitt, Morris Quaal, Earl Roberts, Howard Roth, Frank Sorenson, Louis Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer. Sedentarism Starts Early BOSTON — (UPI) — Sedentarism — the tendency to sit down — starts in America at a frighteningly early age, Dr. George K. Makechne said in a report to the American Academy of General Practice.

The dean of Boston University's Sargent College said American children are "put in a living room playpen, carried to school by family auto or school bus, back home again, and flop in front of television."

Berry Good

Strawberry delight is a simple and quick to make dessert. Prepare one 3-ounce package of orange-flavored gelatin according to label directions. Chill until set. Beat until light. Fold in 1 cup of sliced fresh strawberries and 1 cup of heavy cream, whipped. Top with remaining berries from 1 pint container.

Rotary Club Steak Fry at Ellis Home

Palm Springs Rotary Club members and their Rotary Anns will hold a steak fry at the home of the Ron Ellises, 1260 San Jacinto Way, Wednesday evening, June 8.

There will be a cocktail hour beginning at 7 p.m., followed by the steak fry on the patio.

Damaged Rug Can Be Saved

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — Prompt action when water is spilled on a carpet can prevent brownish stains or loss of color.

Water spots often seem to disappear into the pile, but if they are ignored, they can develop into a real problem, says Clara Leopold, extension home management specialist at the University of Nebraska.

Staining comes from water-soluble coloring matter that often is in the carpet backing. Wet pile acts as a wick to draw the color to the surface where it can react with carpet dyes. Damage may not show up until the carpet is cleaned.

"First aid" for water spills begins with blotting up as much water as possible immediately, the expert said. To speed up the drying process, she advised directing a fan against the back of the carpet.

If soap and water are used to wash a fruit drink spot on a rug, another spot can appear. Prevent this by using a detergent recommended for washing fine wearings apparel.

Po-taterdogs Suit Teenage Taste

NEW YORK (UPI) — Heat-and-serve products dominated the Eastern Frosted Foods Association annual buffet luncheon here.

They included: for teen-ager appeal, po-taterdogs, or frankfurters in a blanket of mashed potatoes and a pastry shell. Boil-in-bag items included broccoli hollandaise style; green beans supreme (in cheese sauce); creamed spinach; two heavily breaded fish steak dinners, one in lobster sauce and the other, in shrimp sauce; and two meat dinners, macaroni and beef with peas, and beef patty with boiled new potatoes and peas.

In aluminum foil disposable containers were mildly-seasoned shrimp curry, turnkey tetrazini, Dutch potato salad and baked breast of chicken, southern style (in cream gravy).

Banana and lemon cream pies, both quite sweet, and frozen Japanese mandarin oranges are new in the dessert category.

Bake and serve frozen patty shells, as flaky as the finest French bakery product, are suitable for either dessert or main course, depending on the filling you use.

Drysdale, Sherry on Sidelines

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The battered Los Angeles Dodgers rested today with no game scheduled while manager Walter Alston tried to find a solution to the club's pitching problems.

By dropping Sunday's game to the Chicago Cubs, 12-8, the Dodgers chalked up their fifth loss in seven games of the current home stand.

"WE'VE BEEN meaning all along about our hitting," Alston said. "Now we've got a pitching problem to solve. We hit well enough Sunday to have won if the pitching had stood up."

Part of the pitching problem was the result of injuries. Saturday night Larry Sherry tripped over a bat and sprained an ankle. Sunday Don Drysdale slipped in the clubhouse shower room and pulled muscles and ligaments in his back.

SHERRY WAS ON crutches Sunday and Dr. Robert Woods, the team physician, said it might be two weeks before he recovers.

Drysdale was placed under immediate heat treatment and his injury seemed to respond but the doctor said it would be at least two days before he could determine when the towering pitcher could work again.

ROGER CRAIG, who suffered a fractured collar bone May 2, is throwing again but Alston said it probably would be a week before he could be used in a game.

Sandy Koufax took his seventh loss Sunday against a single win when the Cubs took advantage of his wildness to start a seven-run rally. Until then, Koufax had given up only one hit and a pair of walks as he held the Cubs scoreless for five innings.

THE DOGERS gave Koufax a three-run lead due chiefly to Frank Howard's first colossal homer in the second inning with a man on base. They had two more homers, by Charlie Neal and outfielder Wally Moon, in the late innings.

But they came too late to affect the Cubs' margin sufficiently. The Cubs blasted five pitchers for 15 hits. In the big sixth inning, they scored their seven runs on five walks and five singles. Cub third baseman Frank Thomas got consecutive homers in the seventh and eighth innings.

His FIRST HOMER puzzled the fans as the ball appeared to hit the edge of the left field screen and bounced back into play. Centerfielder Duke Snider said later he thought the ball had gone into the stands and bounced back and did not realize it was in play until Thomas was almost in the plate.

The Dodgers open a three-game series with Milwaukee tomorrow and Alston said Johnny Podres would take over for Drysdale, who had been scheduled to pitch the first game.

THE SECOND-PLACE Cleveland Indians topped the Detroit Tigers, 9-0, after a 7-2 setback, and the New York Yankees beat the Boston Red Sox, 5-4 and 8-3, in other American League games.

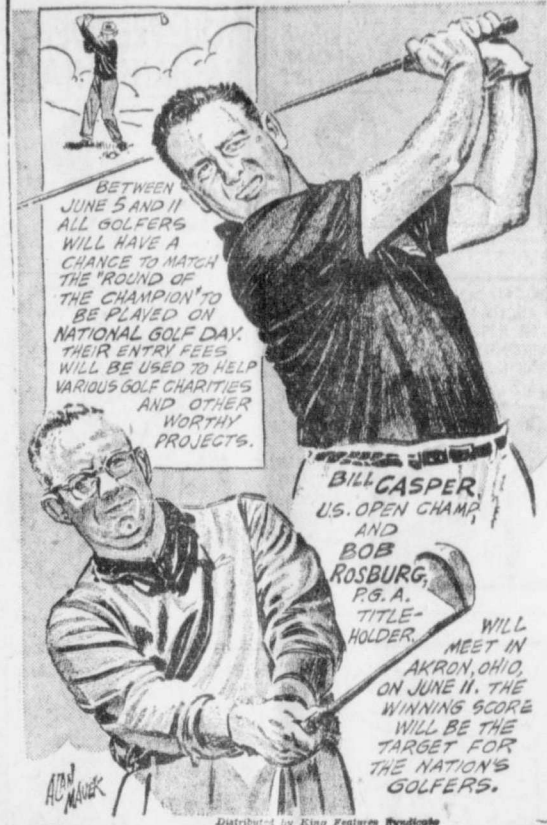

The Pittsburgh Pirates lost a half-game of their National League lead when they were racked up, 2-0 and 4-1, by the Philadelphia Phillies and the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the San Francisco Giants, 9-4.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 4-1, after a 3-2 loss, and the Chicago Cubs out-slugged the Los Angeles Dodgers, 12-8.

CENTER-FIELDER Lennie Green's wild throw after fielding a single by Marv Breeding enabled the Orioles to score two unearned runs in the ninth and snap a two-game losing streak.

The Chicago White Sox have come up with their own "new faces" to meet the challenge of the Baltimore Orioles' "kiddy corps."

They're Russ Kemmerer and Frank Baumann, promoted only recently from the bullpen to bolster the White Sox' veteran staff and they're paying off in brilliant style for manager Al Lopez.

THEY'VE ACCOUNTED for four of the White Sox' last six victories and Sunday they produced the American League champions' first doubleheader sweep of the season with a pair of 2-0 victories over the Kansas City Athletics.

The sweep was a much-needed shot in the arm for the White Sox, who now have won three straight games for the first time in two weeks, and enabled them to move to within three games of the Orioles, who beat the Washington Senators, 6-5, in a single game.

THE MILWAUKEE Braves defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 4-1, after a 3-2 loss, and the Chicago Cubs out-slugged the Los Angeles Dodgers, 12-8.

CENTER-FIELDER Lennie Green's wild throw after fielding a single by Marv Breeding enabled the Orioles to score two unearned runs in the ninth and snap a two-game losing streak.

Hogan, Bolt, Littler Tie At Memphis

Meet in Playoff For First Place Money Today

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Matchless Ben Hogan pitted his 23 years of golfing skill against Tommy Bolt and Gene Littler today in a playoff round to determine the winner of the $30,000 Memphis Open golf tournament.

A clutch birdie on the 18th hole at the Colonial Country Club Sunday earned the 48-year-old hawk from Fort Worth, Tex., a two-under par 68 and a 72-hole total of 273 for a tie with Bolt and Littler.

Bolt, playing with the knowledge that his wife, Mary Lou, had undergone sudden surgery here, toured the course in 67.

Littler, sweet-swinging 29-year-old from Singing Hills, Calif., whipped around in 64 for 129 over the last two rounds, lowest 36-hole total on the 1960 tour.

The heat and the pressure proved too much for third round leaders Bill Collins of Crystal River, Fla. and J. C. Goosie of Knoxville, Tenn. Both finished at 274, and earned $1,533.34.

CASEY TO RETURN — NEW YORK — (UPI) — Casey Stengel, itching to get back in harness, will rejoin the New York Yankees Tuesday after being out of action for more than a week with a virus infection.

JOYCE ZISKE SHOWS 'HAS STUFF' TO WIN ONE THIS YEAR — MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (UPI) — Word was beginning to circulate through the more intimate circles of professional golf that Joyce Ziske just "didn't have the stuff" to win one this year.

One of the most consistent money winners on the 1960 ladies' circuit, Miss Ziske appeared to be doomed to a "bridesmaid" role while others walked off with championship laurels.

But the 25-year-old pro from Watertown, Wis., changed all that Sunday when she toured the Hillcrest Course here in par 75 for a 72-hole total of 299 and a three-stroke victory in the women's Wolverine Open.

Her 299 total, the only sub-par score of the four-round tourney, earned Miss Ziske some $1,300 in first prize money.

MARKING HIS 98th birthday in Cincinnati, O., William E. (Dumpty) Hoy is believed to be the oldest former big leaguer still alive. Hoy, born at Findlay, O., in 1865, was an outfielder before the turn of the century with Washington, Buffalo, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Louisville, ending his career with the Chicago A.L. team and Cincinnati N.L. team in 1901-02.

ROSEWALL WINS — CORONADO — (UPI) — Ken Rosewall of Australia picked up the $1,000 first prize Sunday when he defeated Peruvian Alex Olmedo, 6-4, 6-3 in the pro men singles finals of the $3,000 Hotel Del Coronado Tennis Tournament.

Robinson Rated 2-1 Favorite Over Pender

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Sugar Ray Robinson is favored at 2-1 to recapture the New York and Massachusetts version of the world middleweight championship from Paul Pender at the Boston Garden Friday night.

Their 15 - rounder, outstanding fight on the week's boxing schedule, will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.

Robinson, 39 or 40, lost the 160-pound title to Pender of Brookline, Mass., at Boston, on Jan. 22. However, a poll of ringside sports writers that night favored Sugar Ray, 10 to 5.

Sugar Ray is favored against Pender, 29, because of his punch and because he never has lost a return bout. Also because he already has won the middleweight crown a record five times.

WARD WINS $6,812 — MILWAUKEE — (UPI) — Rodger Ward, of Indianapolis, pocketed $6,812 and took a commanding lead in the national championship point standings today as a result of his record-setting victory in the Rex Mays 100-mile classic for big cars.

BOXER LOSES LIFE IN RESCUE EFFORT

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Hard-hitting Rudell Stutch, a top-ranking national welterweight contender, lost his life in the Ohio River Sunday while trying to rescue a fellow fisherman.

Both the boxer and his 25-year-old companion, Charles L. Oliver, drowned in the swirling water below the Clarksville dam here. Stutch only last year was awarded the Carnegie Hero Medal for his heroic feat in rescuing a worker, Joseph Schifcar of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, in 1958.

STITCH, RANKED No. 5 by the National Boxing Assn. in the welterweight division, and Oliver had been fishing with Stutch's manager, Edgar Lee "Bud" Bruner and Bruner's 19-year-old son, Edgar Jr., on a rock shelf below the dam. They had decided to quit and were heading back to shore when the accident occurred.

The elder Bruner gave this account of the mishap: "Russell was leading the way along the rock shelf over which water flows continuously. Oliver was following him and I was last. My son had stayed on the bank. Oliver was leery of the rushing water and Stutch reached back to steady him.

"AS THEY CLASPED hands, Oliver tumbled off the shelf into the pool below, pulling Stutch with him. I grabbed for them, but I missed.

"Rudell went down and stayed down a long time. It looked like he was trying to get the waders off.

"And then I saw them. It looked like everything was going to be all right for a minute. They were both swimming toward shore. Then something happened. Oliver was struggling. He was having trouble. Stutch turned back to help him and they both went under. That was the last I saw of them."

Other witnesses said they felt sure Stutch would have made it to shore if he hadn't turned back.

Ex-Tiger Owner Fights for Life — BENNINGTON, Vt. (UPI) — Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, former owner of the Detroit Tigers, was fighting for his life today against the effects of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Briggs, 48, collapsed at Williamstown, Mass., where he had gone to attend the graduation of his son, James, from Williams College Sunday.

Williams, Musial Hurting Lifetime Marks

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK (UPI) — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:

Stan Musial, who may quit before the end of the season, and Ted Williams both could drop sharply on the all-time batting average rolls if they continue at their present pace of hit production—or lack of it.

WILLIAMS, AT THE END of the 1958 season, stood sixth among the all-time hitters with a .349 lifetime average. He dropped to eighth with his 254 mark last year and could fade to 13 or as far as 16th this time around if he goes much below his current .300 average.

Musial, after the 1958 campaign, was 16th among the all-time hitters with a lifetime average of .340. His 1959 mark of .225 skidded him to 20th and his current .245 average threatens to drop him out of the top 25. Williams will sweat out the season but Stan the Man may depart by the All-Star break.

INGEMAR JOHANSSON, the Swedish iron man who defends the heavyweight championship against Floyd Patterson at the Polo Grounds on June 20, is the fourth man to march all the way to the big peak-busting title without being beaten. Ingo has won 22 in a row as he prepares for his first defense.

John L. Sullivan, Jim Jeffries and Rocky Marciano pulled the same stunt. Yet, while John L. is recognized as the first of the "modern" champions, his name is conspicuously missing from the list of champions on the new perpetual Jack Dempsey trophy.

There comes a time in every man's life when he has to prove to junior just who's boss. Lee Petty is having a rough time of it. Lee, off-time champion of the stock car racing business, started so: Dick a couple of years back and now the 21-year-old chip off the old engine block is top man in NASCAR's grand national circuit point standings. Who's second? Why, Pappa, of course. Maxie Patkin, the baseball clown who has been seen in more ball parks than a dozen Bobo Newsoms, may have to curtail his traveling now. The poor man's "Slapsie Maxie" took a called third strike in the matrimonial league when he married Judith Oberndorf in their native Philadelphia.

WALKER CUPPER Jimmy McHale, lady pro Barbara Romack and swing-and-throw man Sammy Kaye are in for a rough afternoon in the Triangle Round Robin pro-celebrity tournament at Knollwood, N. Y., on Wednesday. They will learn how tough this game can really be from the other member of their foursome meaning Old Fearless.

A total of 114 wheelchair athletes from Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Maine, Florida, Michigan, New York, New Jersey and Canada will compete next weekend in the fourth annual National Wheelchair games in New York. Events include track and field, swimming and archery.

MATCH-MAKING TRED BY DENNIS

Since Lavinia has apparently moved into the apartment house—Dennis' apartment that is—Dennis has been forced to bunk with Charley in the basement. Since Charley's snoring and snortings get too much for Dennis, he contrives to marry Lavinia off to Charley for another sleepless night during KTTV's "Dennis Day Show," Monday, June 6, 8 p.m. Channel 11.

Since Dennis gets no rest due to Charley's disturbances, he eagerly awaits breakfast, but this drops his spirits even more. Charley fixes a tempting snack of hard eggs, burned toast and thick coffee.

Dennis decides to rid himself of Lavinia by marrying her off to Charley. They arrange a double-dating picnic, Charley and Lavinia and Dennis and Marian—a girl from Iowa whom Dennis has been helping launch her career.

Everything seems to be going well, but a telegram unexpectedly arrives from Lavinia's nephew saying that he is on his way to take Lavinia home. Dennis is delighted and hurries to meet the nephew, who turns out to be so repulsive, that Dennis' feelings become protective.

To convince the nephew to leave Lavinia alone, Dennis disguises himself as Charley and tells the nephew he will be marrying Lavinia. The nephew leaves, but before Dennis can change back to Dennis again, in comes Charley. Charley decides that brother Norby has come to visit and he scolds him for promiscuity. To protect brother Norby from himself, Charley handcuffs him to his wrist and off they go to the basement.

The men are seen in heat chambers, centrifuges, space simulators and in "Mastiff," the giant simulator which duplicates the tumbling motions which could occur in space.

NBC Has New Gun Slinger Gimmick

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Having run out of off-beat firearms as a means of distinguishing one TV cowpoke from another, NBC has come up with a new gimmick—a one-armed gun-slinger.

The new series, "Tate," makes its debut June 8 with actor Dave McLean playing the crippled hero.

HIS LEFT HAND and arm are encased in a leather sling strapped to his side. The show has 13 weeks of summer replacement time in half of Perry Como's time slot to prove itself.

If "Tate" becomes a hit, as tentatively new set of western types might come into vogue.

Next fall CBS could fight back with a hero who suffers from asthma. ABC might star a sheriff with the gout. Or how about a marshal with the seven-year itch. You gotta feel sorry for a guy who has to stop in the middle of a shoot-out to scratch his back.

BE THAT S it may, one man is taking the maimed hero seriously—actor McLean.

"I think the character is believable," he said.

"It is explained in the first segment of the series that Tate's arm was wounded during the Civil War, and that it is completely paralyzed."

OFF SCREEN McLean is a mean looking customer, more suited for heavy roles than heroic parts.

Accused of appearing mean and nasty, McLean became reproachful.

"A lot of people claim I'm mean looking," he complained.

"But I'm not. My role in this series calls for warmth, and I think I'm able to provide it. I certainly hope I don't come off mean."

EVEN IF HE does, the audience will be pulling for him in barroom brawls and gun fights—unless, of course, the villain also has a paralyzed arm in addition to being blindfolded and hobbling around on crutches.

In that case they may put McLean on a three-legged horse.

GUEST ON SHOW IS 'MISSING HEIR'

Charles Raymond Shemell of Los Angeles visited "Art Linkletter's House Party" program recently and went home the surprised heir to a $50,000 estate.

Shemell was the first missing heir found by Herb Saxton, professional investigator who has appeared on the program several times to announce that he was conducting a search for people who could inherit unexpected fortunes.

Soon after one of Saxton's appearances, "House Party" received a letter from the trustee of an estate in Milwaukee stating that if they were really serious about the matter, there was a $50,000 estate in their courts and that no will had been filed.

Saxton then took over, launched his search and eventually tracked down Shemell as the rightful heir to this estate, which was left under the married name of his father's sister, Marie D. Kessell.

Shemell was born in 1909 in Milwaukee and his parents separated when he was an infant. In 1918

TECHNICIAN TESTS ONE of the University of California at Riverside's promising new insecticides on an anesthetized mosquito typical of many species now almost immune to standard insecticides. Success of United Nations' worldwide

UCR 'TASK FORCE' IN WAR AGAINST WORLD MALARIA

RIVERSIDE — This city has become a key center of research in the worldwide battle against malaria.

The World Health Organization has assigned to Riverside scientists the task of finding chemicals to help in the fight against the deadly disease.

California Mosquito Abatement programs also will gain from the research.

Compounds recommended by entomologists at the University of California here will be tested by manufacturers to cooperating scientists in England and Africa, in a crash program to beat the mosquito before it overruns entire countries with malaria.

WHO authorities in Geneva have called the development of resistance in mosquitoes "one of the most serious threats to malaria eradication."

IT'S 92-NATION, $1,700,000,000 campaign against malaria is in serious danger from genetically selected mosquitoes that shrug off standard insecticides, according to Dr. Robert L. Metcalf, chairman of the UCR department of entomology.

The chameleon's adrenal glands are believed responsible for its color changes, says the National Geographic Society. The glands are activated by temperature, light and excitement — not by background colors.

Dr. Metcalf is a recognized international authority on insect resistance to chemicals and a consultant to the United Nations organization.

WHO's malaria program, begun in 1955, has depended for its success on DDT and dieldrin. But in parts of the United States, the Middle East and Asia, anopheline mosquitoes have acquired varying degrees of immunity to these once-powerful insecticides.

"RELIABILITY of the chemical used is vital to the success of a malaria eradication campaign," Dr. Metcalf notes. "Millions of dollars and manhours go into a three-year, house-to-house, hut-to-hut campaign of spraying to kill mosquitoes. Failure of the chemical can be a terrible setback to the program."

What are the chances of success in the Riverside search for new mosquito killers? "We're quite optimistic," says the UCR entomology chairman. "We already have 11 promising compounds ready to recommend for further testing."

These organophosphorus compounds are "highly effective" against both resistant and susceptible mosquitoes, says Dr. Metcalf, and they appear to be relatively non-toxic to mammals.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, June 6, the 166th day of the year, with 200 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1755, Nathan Hale, American patriot and hero of the Revolutionary War, was born.

In 1816, 16 inches of snow fell in New England, starting "the year in which there was no summer."

In 1875, world-famous writer Thomas Mann was born.

In 1933, the first motion picture drive-in theater opened in Camden, N. J.

In 1944, in the greatest amphibious invasion ever seen . . . The Allies commanded by Gen. Dwight David Eisenhower landed on the beaches of Normandy. It was D-Day.

Thought for today: German-American author Thomas Mann said, in "Buddenbrooks": "Beauty can pierce one like pain."

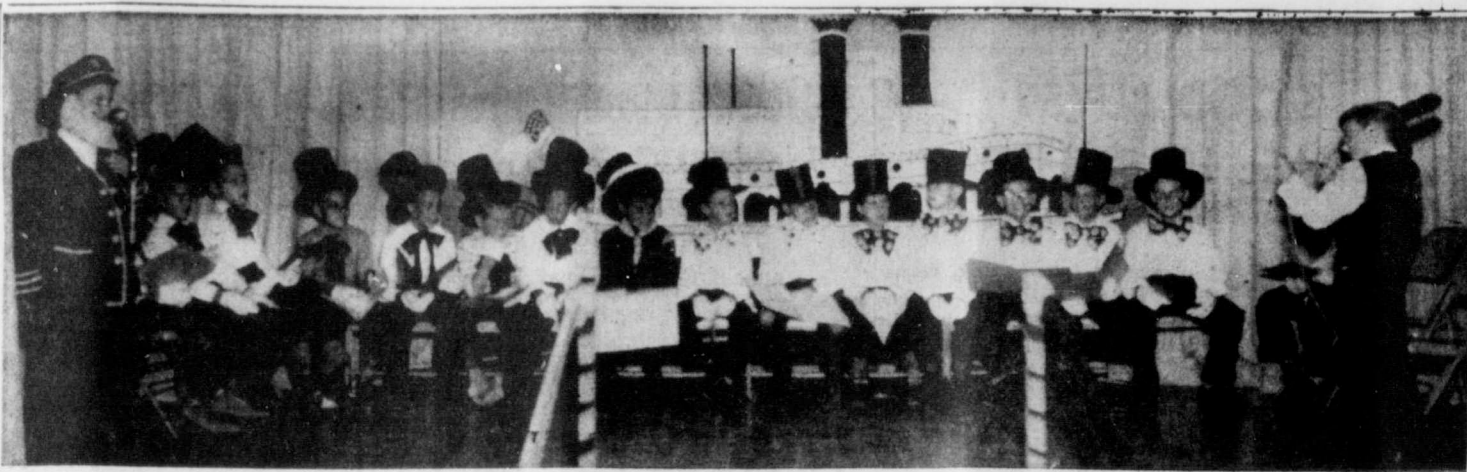

There are 4,114 telephone companies in the U.S., but one of them — American Telephone and Telegraph — accounts for nearly 85 million of the nation's nearly 66 million telephones.

DEPUTIES SEEKING THIEVES OF 'PHONE BOOTH, CIG MACHINE

At Thermal, a telephone booth, valued at $125, and $18 in cash were stolen from the Coachella Valley High School grounds.

SHOWBOAT TIME HIGHLIGHTED the final season pack meeting of Cub Pack 170, with members of Dens One, Three, and Four participating in the songs, jokes, and skits. Ole Gap Robert Hathaway, left, didn't walk the gangplank, but James Maffie, right, did get a bead on him with a bent arrow. Pack 170 received the Presidential award for the best display in the recent Scout-O-Rama, and Ricky Harrison was awarded a golf cup by

Scout executive Vardie Lawrence for selling the most Scout-O-Rama tickets for Pack 170. Other cast members were Bill Blackwell, Greg Lilly, Elliott Malach, Richard Bannon, Tom Bradley, Jim Cioffi, Allan Cornfeld, Robert Cole, Dean Forman, Glenn Goldman, Steven Greene, Billy McGee, Paul Milkie, Brad Miles, Peter Myerson, James Normandin, Tom Rechten, Tim Smith,

Michael Smythe, Tom Tobey and Glenn Vogelaar. Adults in the show—held at Cahulla school Friday evening—were Tom Bradley, Tom Caldwell, Al Normandin and Bob Smythe. SERGEANT FIRST MARINE TO WALK ACROSS FORMOSA

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Sergeant William D. Langlois, an ambulance driver at the Station Hospital at Marine Corps Base, Twenty-nine Palms, California has a very unique claim to fame.

According to Langlois he is believed to be the first Marine to walk across the island of Formosa.

WHILE SERVING on Embassy duty Langlois, along with John Heideman, an official from the Taiwan Defense Command, Torbyn Viej, Scandinavian Engineer working for the Nationalist Chinese, and First Lieutenant Beckman, U. S. Army, were the first four men known to walk across Formosa which measures 113 miles.

Dressed in shorts, short sleeve shirts and light packs, the four left Taichow on June 27, 1957 and walked 113 miles across treacherous mountain terrain that included many miles of grass 12 to 14 feet high. They arrived in Hualien, on the opposite side of the island, eight days later.

WHILE EN ROUTE they were met by tribesmen from Taroko. Langlois describes these people as living in an era "over 100 years behind modern times."

After taking the hikers by torchlit parade to their village, the natives had a festival in their honor.

Some Spuds

KEARNEY, Neb. (UPI)—About Mark E. McConnell's farm live purple-potato-eaters. McConnell's been growing the purple spuds since '36.

They're fine for mashing, baking, french-frying. They even make good potato chips. They're purple clear through, but they taste just like regular potatoes, McConnell said.
